NUMBER 7009.

Yesterday's Circulation, 50,262

WASHINGTON, SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 4, 1911.

PRICE ONE CENT

SOCIALIST WALLING VICTOR IN BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Parisian Prosecutor's Motion to Set Aside Verdict Overruled.

AUTHORESS WIFE AT SIDE OF MILLIONAIRE

000 Which Has Aroused Wide Interest.

NEW YORK, March 4.-After twelve hours of wrangling the jury in the $100,000 breach-of-promise suit brought by Annette Berthe Grunspan against William English Walling, today brought in a verdict for the defendant. As the finding was announced the comely little Parislan, whose romance with the millionaire Socialist took the couple all over Europe, paled a trifle, and, turning to her counsel, whispered:

"Well, what do you think of that?" Miss Grunspan's attorney immediately made a motion that the finding of the jury be set aside. Justice Geigerich said:

"I consider the jury's action well supported by the evidence, and I deny the

Wife at His Side. Walling's wife, who was Miss Anna

Strunky, the Russian authoress, was at her husband's side when the case

Neither attempted to conceal their gratification at the result.

"I have found deep inspiration in this case," said Walling, after court adjourned, "When persons who had known this girl in Europe learned through the newspapers how the case, at the beginning, was apparently goin; against me, they realized the scandal and the shame of it, and unsolicited came to court to help me."

Judge and Juror Got Letters.

During the proceedings Justice Geigerich mentioned that he and juror No s, who was conspicuous during the trial by the many questions he put to witnesses, have received letters commenting on the case. Later the justice declined to make known the contents of the letters, saying: "To do so might defeat the ends of

It was rumored that almost up to the time the court convened at 10:30 the o'clock, was the report.

After the court adjourned no trace of the recent plaintiff was to be found She was hustled out of the building by friends, who refused to allow her to make a statement on the result of he effort to collect balm for her wounded

Hughes to Take Charge

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 4.-P. M. Hughes, formerly of Washington, took charge formally of the schools here today following a banquet given him last night, at which he outlined policies defeated. he will follow as superintendent. The banquet was attended by leading school officials of the city and State, actuding the Syracuse board of educaany on his way from Washington, and and determination reached whether they beld a conference with State Commis- shall be admitted ioner of Education Andrew S. Draper. Clean athletics and modern methods of his policy, as outlined last night,

Throws Poisoned Meat

I'HILADELPHIA, March 4.-Free meals distributed from a yellow racing utomobile have resulted in the death of twelve valuable dogs near Mt. Airy. habit of dogs chasing automobiles. hunks of meat poisoned with strychnine and arsenic were thrown the dogs by the "killer."

The identity of the automobilist is for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Rising Against Europeans

ST. PETERSBURG, March 4.-Reports ing an anti-foreign uprising in China, state that proclamations have been issucd advising the extermination of Eucopeans.

A Boxer uprising is expected by the foreign newspapers. All the European government will send troops to protect their subjects.

WEATHER REPORT.

FORECAST FOR THE DISTRICT. Protably fair tonight and Sunday not much change in temperature; lowest temperature tonight about 22 de

2 p. m....

TiDE TABLE.
Today—High tide, 10:32 a. m. and 10:57
p. m.; low tide, 4:35 a. m. and 5:07 p. m.
Tomorrow—High tide, 5:13 a. m. and 11:45 p. m.; low tide, 5:13 a. m. and

SUN TABLE. Sun rises...... 6:30 | Sun sets........5:56 | Advt.

CLOSING FILIBUSTERS SQUEEZE OUT BILLS OFADMINISTRATION

Reciprocity and Tariff Board Among Measures That Go Down Amid Turbulent Scenes at Session's End.

Ends Long Court Fight for $160,- DRAMATIC FIGHTS FOLLOWED BY USUAL LOVE FEAST WIND-UP

Running the gantlet of a sensational and dramatic filibuster in the Senate, and of a jam of business in the House which finally squeezed the life out of the tariff commission bill at the last minute, the Sixty-first Congress came to an end today.

Canadian reciprocity failed to get a vote in the Senate and goes over to the extra session. The tariff commission bill failed of a vote in the House, and the Administration lost its two best measures. The Senate did not get to a vote on the reapportionment bill and it also died

Not in the memory of the oldest legislator has there been so many dramatic features, so many swiftly changing situations, so many gratifications and sudden disappointments as marked the closing hours of the Senate's

A stormy scene as turbulent as any ever witnessed in the House marked the last minutes there-a scene in which men forgot themselves, yelled at the tops of their voices, marched in squads on the Speaker's chair, only to the cash were victimized be driven back by the mace.

The time-honored custom of turning back the clock was observed in both chambers. The actual time of Senate adjournment was 12:18 o'clock. The House adjourned at 12:41 o'clock.

The occasion for the turbulent scenes in the House was a filibuster against the tariff board bill. It was successful. After Speaker Cannon had iropped his gavel for the last time the scene immediately was converted into love feast that brought tears to the eyes of Champ Clark, "Jim" Tawney,

Then the lame ducks and the ones who will come back again joined in "Auld Lang Syne." More than a hundred of the choristers this afternoon became private citizens.

House Closing Hours

Marked by Turbulent

After scenes as turbulent as eve

The session went out in a love feast that brought tears to the eyes of men like Champ Clark and Jim Tawney, and Sereno Payne, and James R. Mann, who have served for many years with the venerable and pic turesque character who is no longer

Sang "Auld Lang Syne."

The moment after the gavel fell men had swarmed about him and, with arms around his neck, began to sing "Auld Lang Syne." A hundred of those who shook the hand of the departing Speaker are this afternoon private citizens. Their official car eers ended when Joseph G. Cannon ennounced that the House had ad-journed without day.

For two hours preceeding the fall of the gavel, the House had been a scene of tumuit and bedlam. The Democrats had fillbustered, and suc-cussfully, against the tariff board bill. Roll call after roll call had been de-manded. Anger crept into the hearts of those on both sides of the chambe

The Filibuster Won.

Democratic filibuster had been won.

Tribute to Cannon.

"The Sixty?first Congress is passing undoubtedly one of the stormlest sessions ever held in the history of this Government. It began with a storm and it came near ending in a storm to-

(Continued on Second Page.)

recrimination.

Owen Filibuster_ Forces the Senate to Kill Statehood Bill

The Senate had been in the throes of a remarkable fillbuster ever since 1 marked the hours of a dying Conjury falled to agree. One juror held out o'clock this morning, when Senator gress, when men forget themselves, in favor of Miss Grunspan up to 10:15 Owen of Oklahoma took the floor and and say things in the stress of exstarted a speech against time in the ef- citement that they regret an hour fort to force passage of a resolution ad- later, the last session of the House of rutting Arizona and New Moxico to Representatives of the Sixty-first Statehood. Less than an hour before Congress came at 12:30 o'clock today the adjournment time the Oklahoman, when Speaker Cannon let fall for the still going strong and in excellent fet- last tle, yielded to insistence that the aprepriation bills should not be killed and dictated the terms of his subsidence. He demanded that the resolution for the Of Syracuse Schools

Admittance of both Arizona and Nextco be given a vote by the Senate. The original resolution had provided only for the admittance of New Mexico. Owen insisted that both Territories should be considered now, and he won its point. By a vote of 45 to 39 the resoadmitting both Territories was

The result of this action is that the proposition to admit the Territories goes over to the extra session. The pending constitutions of the two proposed States not having been formally rejected, will on Mr. Hughes stopped over in Al- be taken up early in the extra session.

Promise of Extra Session.

Senator Owen consented to the agreeeducation were the principal topics ment for a vote only after he had had onveyed to him the positive promise of President Taft that an extra session would be called on March 15. Vice President Sherman was the messenger From Motor Cars to Dogs who brought the assurance. President Taft was in the Presidential chamber, in the rear of the Senate, in constant conference with Senators and other lead-ers, during the critical hours of the filibuster. The first absolute and concluf twelve valuable dogs near Mt. Airy. sive promise of an extra session is that The canine epidemic results from the sent to Senator Owen by the President. "I should not have vielded the floor, and would have talked the session to a finish without permitting the general deficiency bill to pass if the President had not sent me this positive assur-ance," said Senator Owen, after he had The identity of the automobilist is ance," said Senator Owen, after he had suspected and prosecution is planned by the Society for the Prevention of on his resolution for the admittance of both Territories.

Fought All Alone.

"Nobody knew, not a single soul, when I got the floor last night what I

"Nobody knew, not a single soul, when I got the floor last night what I Said to Be Plan in China when 1 got the noon and purpose to intended to do. It was my purpose to From that moment on, tranquility force the attention of the country to the effort which has been made to keen before there had been dissension and the effort which has been made to keep Arizona out of the Union because it has adopted a people's rights constitution. The Arizona constitution, including the initiative and referendum and recall, and other important progressive measures, represents the last crystallization of popular purposes to restore the government to the hands of that body to its venerable from Mokden and Vladivostok corcern- Arizona out of the Union because it rystallization of popular purposes to rehe people There is a determined effort to prevent such a constitution be-ing accepted by Congress. I am in favor of this constitution, and the people all over the country are rapidly fore, had been denouncing gag rule and a Republican steam roller joined in a demonstration to Uncle Joe.

Mr. Clark said: people all over the country are rapidly lining up in favor of the governmental idea, which it represents.

idea, which it represents.

"The time has come to force public attention to this question in its largest aspect and to make it an issue so plain that no man could fall to understand it. "The vote taken today assures that, in the next Senate as well as in the next House, the two States will be admitted

(Continued on Second Page.)

Worthy of Consideration.

California via "The True Winter Route" The Illinois Central, in connection with the Southern Pacfic, operates through tourist cars, Chicago to San Francisco every Monday, from Cincinnati and Louisville every Tuesday and Friday. Low Colonist rates March 19th to April 19th. Particulars, F. S. Bishop, G. E. P. A., Illinois Central Railroad, 336 Broadway, New York.—

Advt.

Advt.

Worthy of Consideration.

Joseph G. Cannon will go down in history as a great man. It makes no difference whether we like or dislike him, whether we indorse in whole or in part or not at all that he has done, he is a man with whom the historians must deal in the years to come and he will occupy great space. Human nature is a great and inexplicable institution. Under stress of aggravated circumstances men say and do things that they would not

MANY INDICTMENTS SOUGHT ON EXPOSE OF PALS BY ROBIN

Asserts Dozen Banks Were, Victimized by Group of Promoters.

NAMES AND DATES GIVEN AUTHORITIES

Robbed and Deserted by Associates, Wants Their Company in Jail.

NEW YORK, March 4.- There is to be a new bankers' colony at Sing Sing prison if District Attorney Whit-

He today continued his conferences with Joseph C. Robin, disciple of frenzied finance, and the latter placed in affidavit form his amazing story of how the cash and assets of a dozen financial institutions in this city were manipulated by a coterie of promoters, and used to hoodwink the State banking department while the real owners of

To Report to Grand Jury.

Beyond admitting that the story told by Robin was the most remarkable he had ever heard, Whitman refused to comment on the matter. He will, however, let Robin tell the grand jury all about it next week and expects a score of indictments. Robin's story implicates a group o

He gave Whitman names, dates mounts, etc. In his cell in the Tombs today Robin said that he had told all he knew to the district attorney. He said that inasmuch as he had been robbed an deserted by his associates in crime politicians and Southern and Western he had no hesitancy in betraying "I will have plenty of company. And And Pathetic Scenes the public will learn the money conthe public will learn the truth about fided to them to invest and care for

Wounded in Duel Over Bernstein's New Play

PARIS, March 4.-George Claretle, sor of the manager of the Comedie Francais, was wounded slightly in the right side today in a sword duel with Leon last time, the gavel that he has wielded for the past eight years. Daudet, son of Alphonse Daudet, the author. The duel was the first to result from the criticisms of Henri Bernstein's new play, "Apres Moi," which aroused such anti-Semitic feeling that Premier Monis yesterday ordered it withdrawn. Claretle took offense at a newspaper criticism by Daudet. The duelists fought first with pistols, without injury

Ambassador to Mexico Reported to be Recalled

MEXICO CITY, March 4.-It is report ed today on high authority that Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico. has been recalled, and that he will soon remove from the republic. Wilson is now visiting in the United States.

Remarks unfriendly to Americans in Mexico have been attributed to Ambassador Wilson, and the Spanish nevs-papers of the country frequently have criticised his policies. Of these newsapers El Pais, a Catholic organ, closed by orders of the government on Febru-ary 28 last, was most bitter in its de-nunciation of the American ambassador and the sergeant-at-arms had been forced to walk up and down in the sisles upholding the mace in order to obtain comparative quietude. Mrs. McKee-Tevis Says At fifteen minutes to 12 by the clocks that hung above the Speaker's desk and the main entrance of the House PARIS, March 4.-Loss of $185,000 in respectively, Mr. Payne, in charge of jewels and securities is reported by Mrs. the tariff board oill yielded to the Cornelia Baxter Tevis, divorced wife of inevitable, threw up the sponge and the A. Hart McKee, Pittsburg millionaire. In court Mrs. Tevis says she gave her The tariff board bill was withdrawq property to Nedjib Pasha, a Turk, well from the consideration of the House in known in the French capital.

order that it might engross, and that the Speaker might sign bills that were That the Turk soid her property and kept the money is charged by Mrs. Tevis. Pasha says he financed her divorce proceedings, and accepted her property for that purpose.

Trampled to Death

HANKOW, China, March 4.-In the food by missionaries in the province of many others injured. The missionaries planned a systematic distribution of the food stuff, but their work was hardly begun when thousands of desperate men and women and children who had learned there was a chance of partly into history. The man who writes the satisfying their hunger, swooped down annals of our times will assert that it upon the supply depot. The riot that has been one of the most important and

Colonel Thurston Falls Or Jumps From Window

ter A. Thurston, U. S. A., retired, was taken to Bellevue Hospital today. He fell or jumped from the third floor of the Naturopathic Health Home. There it was said that Thurston has been at the hospital under treatment

BAILEY RESIGNS: DRAMATIC SCENE AT CLOSING SESSION

Senator From Texas, Who Startled Congress by Presenting His Resignation at Closing Session.

Texas Senator's Action Attributed to Offense at Stand of Democrats on Arizona; Vice President Pleads to Dissuade Him.

Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey of Texas has resigned from the Senate

Had a bomb exploded in the Senate chamber today it would not have caused more of a sensation.

Senator Bailey sent his resignation to the governor of Texas a short while before the Senate adjourned for the session. He sent a copy of it to the desk of the Vice President in the closing moments of the Congress. Vice President Sherman refused to permit it to be read.

Senator Bailey gave no explanation. But the reason for his action is understood to be that he is vexed that the Democrats of the Senate have gone on record for the recall and for the initiative and referendum

APPROVAL OF ARIZONA.

They did this when today they voted wrought up. He is reputed to have stitution, which contains these features.

All the Democratic Senators but Over-All the Democratic Senators but Overman, Bailey, and Taliaferro voted for man, Bailey, and Taliaferro voted for the resolution.

The Texas Legislature is in session, Senator Bailey, and thus go on record was chosen Senator in 1901.

a approving his position. a statement, and seemed to be much resignation, or the approval of the Arizona cot - said he would not serve in the Senate such conditions.

Senator Bailey has had long service and it is a pro-Bailey organization. It in House and Senate. He entered the is expected that it will at once re-elect House in the Fifty-second Congress and Soon after adjournment Vice President Sherman pleaded with Lodge, Lorimer, Root, and Bacon gath-Senator Bailey not to resign. He was ered in the Vice President's room with obdurate. He refused later on to make Mr. Balley to urge him to withdraw his

Taft Assures Grangers Farmers Need Not Fear

Husbandry. President Taft is defending the treaty in response to an inquiry of Governor Bachelder.

"A couple of years' test will prove it," says the President in closing his

Vaudeville War Ended Finally By a Merger

NEW YORK, March 4.-A vaudeville war of fifteen years' duration was end-In Bread-line Riot ed today when Marcus Loew, a New York theatrical manager, bought an interest in and took over active control riot which followed the distribution of of the vaudeville houses owned or booked by William Morris, incorporated. food by missionaries in the province of Sha-Yang Hupeh twenty-one persons in New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, St. were trampled to death and a great Louis and Cincinnati, nearly a hundred theaters which were booked by the Morris offices in the West and South-west. Morris will remain with Loew west. Morris w

Hatching By Dynamite

WINSTED, Conn., March 4.-Hatching chickens three or four days before they are due to peck their way into the world is the latest use to which dyna-NEW YORK, March 4.—With fractured ribs and internal injuries that are expected to cause death Col. Walter A. Thurston U.S. A. the shock hatched out seven chicks that he expected to break through the shells early next week. Snakes and frogs were blown from numerous places where they were hibernating.

B. R. Coles, Upnotsterer, Ph. M. 6516

Students in Politics

S. McKee-Tevis Says
Turk Stole Her Jewels

CONCORD, N. H., March 4.—"I don't think it will hurt the farmers," says President Taft of the Canadian reciprocity treaty in a letter received here procity treaty in a letter received here. by former Governor Bachelder, master of the National Grange, Patrons of as poll watchers for other candidates, as poll watchers for other candidates, fourn the House half of each week until the National Grange, Patrons of are arraigned in an editorial today in the Maroon, the students' paper.

"When college men," it says, "of good family, thrust into the midst of an environment of culture and education and right thinking, ignore conscience for a paltry $5, what can be expected of the ignorant, whisky-laden denizen of the First ward lodging house?"

Affirms Prison Term For Capitol Grafting

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 4 .- Joseph M. Huston, architect of the State capitol, and the last of the men to stand trial on charges connected with the alleged conspiracy to defraud the State in the contracts for its furnishings, must go to prison unless an appeal to the Supreme Court saves him. The superior court yesterday affirmed the sentence of imprisonment for not less than six months, not more than two years and a fine of $500. "Successful" Accident The cost of the capitol was $13,000,000, and it is alleged that the State was defrauded of about $5,000,000 of that

Aviator Not Blamed For Death of Woman

MADRID, Mar. 4.-The decapitation of woman by an aeroplane was said today by the authorities not to have been through any fault of the aviator, Mauvais. The spectators yesterday broke down the barrier and rushed upon the field just as the aviator started his macompletely severed. Several other per-

APRIL FOURTH SET FOR THE OPENING OF EXTRA SESSION

President Tells Party Leaders He, Too, Needs a Rest.

DATE PICKED BY THE DEMOCRATS

Republican Leaders in Both Branches Called Into Secret Conference.

The extra session of Congress will not convene on March 15, as given out at the White House yesterday. It will be called to meet on April 4. as asked for by the Democratic leaders of the House.

While at the Capitol today the President told the members of his Cabinet and the leaders of the party who surrounded him that he, too, wanted a rest, and that he was now inclined to call the two Houses back the first of the month.

Taft's Proclamation.

The President's proclamation is as

"Whereas, by the special message dated February 26, 1911, there was transmitted to the Senate and House of Representatives an agreement be-of Representatives an agreement between the Department of State and the Canadian government in regard to reciprocal tariff legislation together with an earnest recommendation that this legislation be promptly adopted;

"And whereas, a bill to carry into effect the said agreement has passed the House of Representative, but failted to reach a vote in the Senate:
"And whereas the agreement stipulates not only that the President of the United States will communicate to Congress the arrangements now the United States will communicate to Congress the arrangements now reached, and recommend the adoption of such legislation as may be necessary on the part of the United States to give effect to the proposed arrangement, but also as the Governments of the two countries may direct, will use the utmost effort to bring about such changes by concurrent legislation in the utmost effort to bring about such changes by concurrent legislation in Washington and Ottawa:

"Now, therefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power vested America, by Virtue of the power vested to the constitution, do hereby America, by virtue of the power vester in me by the Constitution, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordi nary session requires the convening of both houses of Congress of the United States in their respective chambers in the city of Washington on the 4th day of April, 1911, at 12 o'clock noon to the that they may consider and deter-necessary legislation make operative the "All persons entitled to act as members of the Sixty-second Congress are required to take notice of this proclamanine whether Congress shall, by

"WILLIAM H. TAFT." Immediately after the Senate had adjourned a number of Republican lead-ers in the House and Senate were sum-moned by the President into the Executive Chamber for a conference. more than half an hour they discussed a date for reconvening Congress, and agreed.

ren, and Speaker Cannon and Representatives Weeks, Dalzell, Gillett, and

As Secretary Norton emerged from the Fresident's room, shortly after the Sen-ate had adjourned, he said that the proclamation had been precared before the date, and that it would go out before the day was over.

President Taft went to the Capitol at 10:30 this morning. He drove with Sec-retary Norton and Captain Butt to the Senate side in his automobile, and at once began a series of conferences nts in Politics

Was agreed before he arrived that there was no hope even for an accidental consideration of reciprocity, and that Congress therefore would have to come

Among the first to enter the Presiness. He said that nothing therefore, could be gained by having Congress meet at an earlier date.

Several members of the Cabinet, however, as well as Republican Senators, told the President to disregard the wishes of the Democrats in the matter and to exercise his own judgment. This the President finally decided to do, but it so happens that his judgment and that of the Democratic leaders coincided. No sooner had the arrived than the President began signing bills and other measures as they were put through. There were half a dozen or more on the big table waiting for him when he came in. Then as each of the conference reports on the big measures was passed it was hurried into the Executive chamber and approved.

two houses. Most of the Cabinet officers were directly interested in or more of the big supply bills, they were on hand to advise with their chief as to the measures. The President remained The President remained at the Capi-tol until after 1 o'clock.

IN CONGRESS TODAY

Senator Bailey resigns. Canadian reciprocity agreement fails to pass Senate. Reapportionment measure dies in Sen ate in closing hours. ate at 8:30.

All appropriation measures put through. Affectionate farewells in Senate mark chine, the woman running across the path of the aerodrome. Her head was completely severed. Several other Mexican constitution.

Uproar over item in appropriation bill to pay Lorimer $25,000.